

SCHENECTADY NIGHTLIFE

BL's Tavern, a newly remodeled Schenectady fixture located close to Schenectady's historic stockade, has a hidden secret: in addition to very reasonable drink prices the food is top notch. It is pub food, but with a quality you won't believe. The selection of drinks is great and they always have TV's on. This place is definitely worth finding.

Pinhead Susan's is a traditional Irish pub whose name is derived from a nearby graffiti-covered bridge that for years proclaimed to area traffic: "Susan is a Pinhead." This neighborhood spot, opened in summer 2000, is geared toward the 30-and-over crowd. There's upscale pub grub and a cozy seat at the wood-finished bar for sports-watching while sampling a pint or two. There's good food at a great price and a nice interior decor.
